

A SURVEY OF THE PROPHETS

Lesson 19 - Review

As this series of lessons draws to a close, let's review what we've studied.

A. Prepare a table that summarizes the books from Isaiah to Malachi. List the books in order of the first event recorded in the book (or when it may have been written if it contains something other than history). The table should have the following columns:

- Approximate date of the event/book
 - Can be a range of dates for books that span multiple years
- Name of the book
- Number of chapters
- Main literary form(s): history, prophecy, poetry, dialog
- Two interesting facts to help you remember what the book is about

B. Put the letter of the following next to the closest row in your table above:

- a) Fall of the Northern Kingdom
- b) Fall of the Southern Kingdom
- c) Return from Babylonian Captivity
- d) Elijah/Elisha
- e) Esther
- f) Ezra
- g) Nehemiah
- h) King Hezekiah
- i) King Josiah
- j) Zedekiah
- k) King Nebuchadnezzar
- l) Mishael
- m) King Darius
- n) Zerubbabel

C. Which book tends to have a larger number of New Testament references to the author, book, and/or its contents?

D. Locate the following on a map:

- a) Edom (from Obadiah)
- b) Nineveh (from Jonah)
- c) Tarshish (from Jonah)
- d) Assyria (from Jonah and Nahum)
- e) Moab (from Isaiah)
- f) Tyre (from Isaiah)
- g) Babylon (from Jeremiah)
- h) Samaria (from 2 Kings)

E. What three major lesson(s) can we learn from these books for use today?
