

Conflicts in Sports

- Competition creates conflicts and differences of opinion many times during a game.
- Main purpose / role of umpire, referee, or official.
- Umpires arbitrate – (act as a mediator)
- They stand between two players, or two teams and their fans to bring peace back to the field.
- Amazing to watch professional athletes with a small man in a striped shirt between them bring peace and harmony back into the intense conflict.
- But he has the authority to rule and govern and keeps peace and harmony on the field or court.

The Umpire in Greek Sports

- brabeuo To be a brabeús, an umpire, director or arbiter in the public Greek games. In the NT, to rule, govern, (Word Study Dictionary: NT 1018)
- brabeuo properly, "to act as an umpire" (brabeus) hence, generally, "to arbitrate, decide," Col. 3:15, Vines NT:1018
- Only used once in the New Testament:
- And let the peace of God rule (be an umpire) in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful. Col. 3:15-16
- The Holy Spirit wanted us to place the “peace of God” in our heart as an umpire or referee.

Only Used Once in NT

- AND(?) let the peace of God rule (be an umpire) in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful. Col. 3:15-16
- Why is there an “and?”
- Therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, put on tender mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering; 13 bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if anyone has a complaint against another; even as Christ forgave you, so you also must do. 14 But above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection. 13 And let the peace of God... Col 3:12-15
- It is the umpire for emotions that sooth and calm.

What Does Peace Referee?

- We have powerful emotions!
- Anger, fear, dread, remorse, guilt, regret, godly sorrow, bitterness; leading to anxiety, despondency, depression and hopelessness.
- The “peace of God” stands between such emotions and the direction our heart takes!
- Peace has the power to remove these emotions and replace them with calming and soothing ones
- Since the Holy Spirit commands us to “make” this peace our umpire, we must learn how.
- When peace is our umpire / referee that can rule and govern within our hearts it stands between these powerful emotions and contains, lessens and removes them.

For the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal. 2Cor. 4:16-18
